
NEBRASKA MUNICIPAL CLERKS NEWSLETTER

August 2005

Message from the President

*By Jolynn Weber
Administrator/Clerk/Treasurer
Albion
NMCA President*

I just went back through and read all of my messages to you for the newsletter over the past year. I sure felt confident last year when I stated my one GOAL for the year to you, which was to attend one meeting of each of the regional areas. Now as I just looked the article over, I am ashamed of myself. I mentioned the fact that I had only stated one GOAL versus several, so that I knew I could accomplish that one GOAL. Well.... all I have to say for myself is dang it anyway, and it states the obvious and rubber stamps what my husband and I are constantly arguing about. I am just to d__n busy!! I did have higher hopes for myself and I greatly apologize for letting you down!

The two reasons I was unable to accomplish my goal was family and work. I have vowed to myself that my family will always come first, then my job.

So as my family gets older, (and so does mom), my schedule gets more hectic, the time left is for work, which also takes up a lot of time.

Family is a topic that is on my mind a lot these days. Schools are starting up and this year is very exciting, but yet scary for me as I now have a freshman. I love going to any event sponsored by the school, but now I really have a reason to attend them all. My only daughter, the eldest of the three, is going today to get her school permit. I still am not convinced that we should let her drive the eight miles into school, but I am strongly outvoted by her and her father. It is amazing when someone talks about what their children are doing or going through and how it affects them. You listen and try to be supportive, not sure what to say. Well, now I am the parent that is going through several changes, and unsure of how to handle them, i.e., driving, dating, stay overs, shopping, etc. Of course, I want to keep her at arms length, but I always break down because of the little guy in the back of my mind telling me, "You have to let her go, trust her, she has to make her own mistakes."

I am sure all of you have, are, or are going to be going through the things mentioned above. I wish each of you the best of luck, and knowing my "CLERK" family, each of you have or are going to do a fabulous job.

Shortly, you will have a new president, and I can sit back and be thankful for all of you whom I met this year for the first time, and those of you I've known for a long time. You are a wonderful group of people, and I am very honored to have had the privilege to serve as your president. Good luck to everyone who is sending their children off to school, college, the military, or just getting them out of the house in the next month!!
